ROUNDABOUT OFFICE.

WEEKLY ROUNDABOUT.

CLAUDE BUCKLEY.

GEO. A. LEWIS.

BUCKLEY & LEWIS.

Editors and Publishers.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 24, 1880.

If your ROUNDABOUT is marked on the first page with a red X it indicates that your subscription has expired and must be renewed before you receive another paper.

Moonlight boat rides will soon be fashionable.

The flowers are blooming and the boys are happy.

May-day is rapidly approaching. Who'll be May queen?

Buy your Sunday cigars and tobacco and get shaved this evening.

If that boy in the rear of our office, who is continually singing "Dear Little Buttercup," knew the meaning of "dear" he'd stop it.

Hon. Thos. Turner has written to Hon. L. G. Runyon that the full Committee on Commerce has agreed to give him $210,000 more for the Kentucky river. He considers it a great triumph.

No man can ask a greater favor of a newspaper man than to ask him to suppress an item of news. It is easy enough to make such a request, but only a newspaper man can appreciate the magnitude of it.

A pocket-book was found near the powder magazine and left at this office yesterday, by Melinda Combs, colored, containing some notes and papers valuable only to the owner. It is evidently the property of some mountain man from Breathitt county.

Misses Katie and Susie Strauss propose to open a dancing school in this city about the first of May, provided a large enough class can be made up. The Misses Strauss are Frankfort ladies, and are the daughters of Prof. Strauss, leader of Strauss' band, who will be well and favorably remembered by many of our citizens. They are highly spoken of by the Louisville papers, and all who desire instruction in the terpsichorean art would do well to leave their names with Mr. F. B. McLean, at the Capital Hotel, within the next week. The class will be for juveniles, ladies, and gentlemen.

Personal.

Prof. J. Rowland Day, of Millersburg, is in the city.

Mrs. Wm. T. Dudley is visiting friends in Louisville for a few days.

Miss Rosa Freeman, of Rockdale, Texas, is visiting relatives in this city.

Miss Edie Chesnut left Wednesday for St. Louis, Mo., to visit her brother.

Miss Nina Batchelor returned to her home in Louisville Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. David Meriwether went to Louisville yesterday in company with his son David Jr.

Dr. Henry Williamson left Tuesday for his future home in Ohio. Prosperity attend him.

Mrs. Col. J. P. Nichols went to Louisville Monday to make her sister a short visit.

Sidney Davis, who is a student at Music Hall, Cincinnati, writes that he is hard at study.

Mr. James Blackburn, jr., has gone to Nashville, Tenn., to attend the centennial exhibition.

Mr. Wm. B. Moore and wife, Louisville, spent a few days this week with relatives in this city.

Mr. M. Plant, the Louisville jewelry broker, has rooms for a few days at the Weitzel House.

Miss Mary Brown Russell, after a visit of six weeks in New York, reached home Thursday evening.

Mrs. M. J. Lewis, who has been visiting relatives in Louisville for several weeks, returned home last Saturday.

Miss Vene Herndon returned home Monday from Covington, where she has been visiting friends for a couple of months.

Miss Lucy Savres and Miss Nettie Theobald spent a few days with Miss Mamie Ayres, in Woodford county, this week.

Judge W. L. Pence was gallanting the girls around town last Sunday in a handsome new suit from Berberich's Emporium of Fashion.

Mrs. R. H. Wolfe and Miss Cora Salyers, Georgetown, and Miss Bettie Page, New Castle, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. M. G. Jeffers, this city.

Eld. B. B. Tyler, pastor of the Fourth and Walnut Street Church, Louisville, will sail for Europe about the 10th of June, for a three months' vacation.

Mr. Jos. Robinson, who has been to Paduch, was called home by a telegram announcing the severe illness of his daughter, Mrs. Ben. Farmer.

Mr. P. F. Duncan, Louisville, spent a few days in the city with friends this week. He will spend next week in Adair, looking after the Sunday school interests of that county.

Mrs. Ellen Hardin Walworth of Saratoga, N. Y., who has been visiting relatives in this city for some time, left Tuesday morning for a visit to relatives in Woodford county.

Another of Frankfort's good boys is gone. Ed. H. Berry left Monday for Colorado, where he will engage in business. His friends here wish him much prosperity in his new home in the far West.

Miss Sunshine Harris, a charming young lady who has been visiting Misses Sallie Cannon and Pattie Roberts for some time, returned to her home in Louisville Monday, and darkness and desolation now reign in the hearts of more than one young man in this city, where, only a short time since, all was Sunshine and gladness.

BORN.

In this city, on the 18th inst., to the wife of Marsh Woods, a son.

In this city, on the 16th inst., to the wife of James S. Morris, a son.

In this county, on the 17th inst., to the wife of J. P. Woodson, a son—JAMES PICKETT.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died, in this city, on the 5th inst., after a long and painful illness, Benj. J. Franklin, in the 21st year of his age.

Once more the flower of the flock is ruthlessly snatched by the hand of Death; the "Fell Sergeant" has again visited our home and left desolate our already sore afflicted hearts; and while we bow with ad submission to the immutable will of "Him who doeth all things well," we feel that human nature can but grieve over such a loss. The devoted, the affectionate brother, the model man, the pride of our household; to lose him seems an affliction that defies all power of resignation, yet God, in his goodness, consoles us with the assurance that our loss is his gain.

During his last moments he never ceased to assure us that he was going to a heavenly home, and the firm trust that we will meet him there is a consolation most soothing in this hour of grief.

Farewell, dear brother Bennie; not a long farewell, but a sweet remembrance till we meet again. E. P.

TRAINS WEST.
No. 4. Leave Frankfort.....	8:15 a. m.
No. 12. Leave Frankfort.....	2:50 p. m.
TRAINS EAST.
No. 9. Leave Frankfort.....	9:04 a. m.
No. 11. Leave Frankfort.....	5:40 p. m.

The 2:50 P. M. train will make close connection, as formerly, for Cincinnati.

E. P. BRYAN, Agent.

Let us have the city park.
Frankfort will soon be a city.

One of our clerks writes it "Cholley King CaDe."

The fish have been biting freely in the river this week.

Business in Frankfort is improving. The bridge is doing it.

Judge Alvin Duvall's house has been handsomely re-painted.

Dr. W. B. Rodman has had his residence nicely painted this week.

The gentlemen from Clay occupied the chair of the House Thursday.

Mrs. Ann M. Russell has a fine Durham milk cow with a young calf for sale. See advertisement.

The Good Templars of Franklin county will hold a county convention in this city, on the 20th of May.

J. H. Bowen & Co. have a handsome new sign in front of their hardware and agricultural store on Broadway.

F. V. Gray & Co. have a choice stock of staple and fancy groceries, and defy the town to beat them on low prices.

Carl Goin has between four and five thousand beautiful young water maples in his nursery on Mero street. They are in fine condition.

Mr. John T. Buckley has purchased a portion of the McAuliffe property, on Ann street and will shortly begin the erection of an addition to his residence upon it.

A party of young ladies and gentlemen had a delightful picnic at Locust Hill farm Thursday afternoon. The party got home about half past ten o'clock Thursday night.

One of the hostlers at Dan Hancock's stable straps up one fore foot of a mule when he wants to curry off the business end of the uncertain quadruped. This is done to prevent accidents.

The office of the Union Express Company in this city is doing its share of express business. This company has some of the cleverest and politest gentlemen in Frankfort in its employ, and they will make business for the company.

A stranger stopped one of Mr. Wakefield's employes in the lumber yard a few days ago, and, thinking he knew him, said, "Aint your name Rush?" "No sir!" replied the employe; "I Goshins, they don't pay me but a dollar a day."

The trees have taken their leaves but the Legislature hangs on.

The new reservoir has thirty-five feet of clear, cold water in it.

Dogs that howl all night are nuisances. South Frankfort is full of them.

Read the advertisement of a nice new baby buggy for sale in another column.

The beautiful moon-light evenings of the past week have been delightful for promading.

The grand old cliffs, up and down the river, are things of beauty, in their bright new dress of green leaves and wild flowers.

The members of the Frankfort Christian Temperance Union and all friends of temperance are requested to attend the meeting at the court-house to-night.

Some of the members of the Capital Fishing Club went out to Mr. J. W. French's Thursday and seined his pond for fish, with which they stocked the Club's pond, near this city. They caught about nine hundred newlights and a few fine perch.

Little Ollie Walcutt put a minnow in a tub of water with the water lily last fall, and never thought of it again until the tub was taken out of the flower pit this week, when it was found alive and about three times as large as when placed in the tub.

As will be seen, elsewhere in this paper, every barber in the city has signed an agreement to keep his shop closed on Sundays hereafter. Persons who are in the habit of being shaved on Sundays should take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Mr. O. S. Walcutt has a collection of rare old books—one of them having been published as long ago as A. D. 1611. He also has some ancient newspapers and valuable old letters, one of the latter having been written nearly half century ago by Col. R. M. Johnson to Gen. Leslie Combs.

The sociable given by the ladies of the Baptist Church Wednesday night was a most delightful affair. The residence of Mr. Thos. Rodman, sr., where it took place, was well adapted to such an entertainment and the well-known hospitality and thoughtful consideration for the comfort of their guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rodman was everywhere manifest. No one was overlooked, and nothing was left undone that ought to have been done. It was a most enjoyable occasion, besides being a profitable one to the managers. The money taken in amounted to $107.90.

Home industry should be patronized, and especially should it be when your money's worth can be obtained and where good stocks are kept to supply the consumer. Crutcher & Starks, the Capital Clothiers and merchant tailors, have bought, this season, the largest stock of men's and boys' clothing, furnishing goods, cassimeres, hats, &c., ever brought to this market. Gentlemen in search of a spring suit can be suited there. They have styles to please the most fastidious. Their trade this season is unprecedented in the history of their line of business in Frankfort, which speaks for itself the large patronage they so justly deserve.

We are requested by Mr. Alex. Szymanski, proprietor of the barber shop in Lawyers' Row, to say that from and after this date his shop will be closed on Sundays.

The audience to hear Dr. McCosh at the Presbyterian Church Thursday night was very large and very select. The speaker entertained his hearers for over an hour, and such an intellectual treat as was his address is seldom heard in Frankfort.

Will the City Council have the Capital grounds laid off and made into a nice city park, or must the work be done by subscription? We know of one public spirit gentleman who will head a subscription list for that purpose with a hundred dollars.

The streets and alleys of the city need thorough cleaning, and the matter should be attended to without delay. The summer is almost upon us, and the city should be in a condition to defy disease in any form to obtain a foothold here. Wont the proper authorities investigate the matter and so that it has proper attention.

Capital Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., will celebrate the sixty-first anniversary of Old Fellowship in America, next Monday, 26th inst. The Old Fellows, headed by South's famous band, will parade through the principal streets of the city, after which Rev. J. M. Lewis will deliver an address at Old Fellows' Temple. All visiting brethren are cordially invited to participate on this anniversary occasion. The public is especially invited to witness these interesting ceremonies. The procession will be formed in front of the Temple about five o'clock, p. m.

WEEKLY ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 24, 1880.

The finder of a handsome black and white cameo ring will hear of an owner by inquiring at this office.

There will be a temperance meeting at the court-house to-night. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody.

Some very desirable property in South Frankfort will be sold at public auction next County Court-day, in front of the court-house. Read the advertisement in another column in this paper.

Miss Julia Duvall went to Versailles on a visit last week, and in having her baggage checked at the depot in this city, the baggage master very carelessly checked it for Maysville, and much trouble has been experienced in recovering it.

Mr. R. H. Nicol, whose green houses are located on the railroad, a few hundred yards west of the railroad bridge, has an immense quantity of beautiful flowers which he is selling very cheap. He disposes of a wagon load or two every day.

The Council Chamber has been much improved in appearance since the remodeling. Each of the Councilmen has been supplied with a nice desk and arm chair and other conveniences, and there is no reason why our city fathers can't now legislate to please everybody.

Old Don is said to be seventeen years' old and has more friends than any other "pup" in town. He is a setter by profession, but is not now actively engaged in the business. He is the property of Mitch Stephens, and consequently don't have to eat hash for dinner. He behaves himself and is a welcome visitor at the home of more than one kind-hearted man in Frankfort. The policemen all have a kind word and a friendly feeling for old Don. He is always the first living creature seen on these streets in the morning, and the last at night. He is a handsome dog and a faithful friend, and the wish of all who know him is that he may live long and prosper.

Cove Hill.

Mrs. Robt Stone is convalescent.

Tramps keep the grass beat down on the road.

The peach crop is damaged, if not all killed in this neighborhood.

Mr. Marshall, the gate keeper, is a shoe maker, and does satisfactory work on short notice.

A goodly number of people from Frankfort attended church at the school-house last Sunday.

Mrs. J. A. Bell, who has been visiting in Frankfort has returned to her home near Peak's Mill.

Whooping-cough is still prevalent, and seems to slight no one not heretofore attacked by it.

An epidemic of some kind has been prevailing here, but as yet no name has been given it by the doctors. It begins with vomiting.

Miss Lida Graham has opened her school at Church's school house, with 25 scholars for a commencement.

Mr. Ben Williams, of Frankfort, is soon to take the way out of this. The mail business must be improving, or else.

there are attractions of a daintier nature that draws him out, we don't know which. Policy.

White's School-House.

Mr. Robt Exum spent several days in this neighborhood last week.

Miss Maggie Owen, of Frankfort, was visiting at Oak Dale last week.

Peaches were considerably damaged by the late frosts, but other fruit was not injured.

Mr. E. W. Vaughan, formerly of this place, but now in the employ of the Chicago Street Car Co., is expected here on a visit soon.

Rumor says we are to have a wedding soon, and that it will be a grand affair. We will send you the particulars when it occurs.

Farming operations are progressing finely; our farmers are about ready to plant corn. A much larger hemp crop will be sown this year than last.

Miss Eva White, of Alton, is visiting her cousin, Miss Lulu Stephens. Miss Eva is a most charming young lady and a general favorite in this locality.

Capt. Allen says we did him an injustice in our last letter, or in other words that we told a White one on him, and Owen to the circumstances we gladly make the necessary correction.

One of our boys attended a party recently, and in the course of the evening it fell to his lot to kiss a pretty girl and he attempted to do so, when, giving her head a toss, she struck him on the temple, causing him to fall to the floor, to all appearances dead. A free application of cold water brought him around all right. It would take big inducements to get him to try to kiss a girl again, unless she promised to hold still.

REPORTER.

Democratic Call.

The Democratic Committee of the 11th Judicial District, at a meeting held in Owenton, March 24th, 1880, called for a Democratic Convention for the nomination of candidates for the offices of Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney of this, the 11th Judicial District, to be held in the town of Glencoe, Gallatin county, on the 4th day of May, 1880. The basis of representation in said convention shall be one vote for every one hundred votes and fraction of fifty and over cast for Luke P. Blackburn at the last gubernatorial election; and that the delegates be selected by the Democratic voters of each magisterial district, on Saturday, May 1st, 1880, at the hour of 3 o'clock of said day.

From observation, under the microscope, of the blood of patients using Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, taken from time to time, positive proof has been obtained of the steady removal of disease and dead blood particles, and the substitution of vitalized discs, so necessary to the construction of healthy muscle.

DR. T. T. BRADFORD'S Cure for Rheumatism, Gout, and Neuralgia. This is not a nostrum, but a preparation compounded by an experienced physician with a view to the cure of the above complaints. To any who are suffering we offer this remedy as a sure cure, and can furnish the most reliable testimonials from persons who have used it and been relieved. Price, fifty cents per bottle. Further information given by the sole proprietor, Dr. T. T. Bradford, Augusta, Ky. For sale by W. H. Averill, Frankfort, Ky. John D. Park & sons, wholesale agents, Cincinnati, O. feb21-6m.

AUCTIONEERING!

Having had a number of years experience at the business, I offer my services to the citizens of Franklin county as an Auctioneer, and will sell, on the street, household goods, or do general farm auctioneering. Goods left at the store of Mr. V. Berberich or the stable of Dan. Hendricks will receive prompt attention. Charges moderate. J. J. PETERSON, feb21.

WEEKLY ROUNDABOUT.

CLAUDE BUCKLEY.

GEO. A. LEWIS.

BUCKLEY & LEWIS.

Editors and Publishers.

TERMS.

The WEEKLY ROUNDABOUT is published every Saturday, at one dollar per annum, invariably in advance.

Six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents. Money may be sent by post-office money order, or registered letter at our risk.

20c Notices of Marriages, Births, and Deaths inserted free of charge. Obituary notices will be charged for at our regular advertising rates.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 24, 1880.

Griffin Bros. have a mammoth stock of fancy toilet soaps which they are selling at very low figures.

Does the fact of a man being "a large tax-payer" exempt him from being subject to arrest for a violation of the law?

Is the fact of a man being a member of the City Council sufficient to prevent a journalist from using his name in connection with his official acts or in connection with items of news?

The Academy Minstrels will give one of their inimitable performances at Graham's Academy of Music next Wednesday evening, 27th inst. They will be greeted by an overflowing house.

If Luscher don't want his name used in the ROUNDABOUT, he should behave himself like a good, law-abiding citizen, and not interfere with peace officers in the discharge of their official duties.

Mr. M. Plaut, with a large stock of diamonds, watches and jewelry is in the city, and will remain here a few days to accommodate such of our citizens as want bargains in that line.

Judge Sneed received a very stylish double-seated park phaeton from Chicago Tuesday. Besides affording his wife much pleasure, it will show off his span of pretty white ponies to great advantage.

Mr. C. Q. Wright, of the Bible College, Lexington, preached to a very large audience at the Christian Church in this city last Sunday night. It was his first sermon in Frankfort.

We are pleased to note that Mr. A. G. Morris, proprietor of the new tailoring establishment on Main street, has plenty of work, and is giving universal satisfaction. Mr. Alstrom, one of Frankfort's old favorites, is cutting for him.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church are making arrangements for an art loan exhibition, at the former residence of Dr. J. S. Price, on Main street, next Tuesday Wednesday, and Thursday, day and night. The price of admission during the day will be 10 cents. At night there will be an elegant supper furnished, and the fee for admission, including supper, will be 25 cents. The entertainment is a novel one and should be well attended, as the proceeds will be donated to church purposes. Those who attend will have an opportunity of seeing some splendid works of art as well as spending a pleasant hour during the day or evening.

Whenever a thick-headed ignoramus, who is respectable(?) not because of his moral worth, nor his intelligence, nor his occupation, but because he is the possessor of a few thousand dollars, undertakes to dictate to us what we shall or shall not do, we mark him down for a greater fool than the public gave him credit for being, and pass him for what he is worth.

The pleasant weather last Sunday brought out a large number of handsome new suits. Mr. Berberich tells us that he has had all he could do this season, and the orders still come in on him fast. He has a full force at work, day and night, and is turning out clothes rapidly. His fits are perfect, his stock is complete, and his prices are in keeping with the times. Go to see him if you want an extra nice suit.

A gentleman was strolling through South Frankfort Monday, when his attention was attracted by the sweet notes of a mocking bird. Looking up, he saw a lady sitting at the front window, and said, "Madam, will you sell that mocking bird?" She didn't know, but on being pressed to put a price on it she agreed to part with her pet for ten dollars. The gentleman threw himself back in a very consequential manner, and said, "Well, that's not much out of the way—only two days' work for me. I am a member of the Legislature—one of the honorable gentlemen who are here making laws for the State. My name is —, Representative from — county. "Ah!" said the lady; "I am very glad to have seen you, for I have been reading a great deal about you in the papers lately, and I felt some curiosity to see you." "Good evening, madam," said the gentleman from — county, and hastened on his way, forgetting, in his confusion, all about the mocking bird.

A young married couple, who live out in the direction of Bald Knob, came to town Tuesday and purchased a new cooking stove and a lot of new furniture to go to house-keeping. Cash was paid for it, amounting to fifty or sixty dollars, and the couple started home about half past two o'clock. When at the corner of Broadway and Washington streets, one of the horses became frightened at the rattling noise made by the chairs in the wagon, and started to run. The bridegroom pulled hard at the lines, when one of them broke, and he jumped out, leaving the horses to have their own way. They ran at a break-neck speed into the shed over Mr. Chinn's coal scales, one horse going on one side of the corner post and the other horse on the other side. One of the horses kept going on towards the railroad bridge, but the other was thrown violently to the ground. The wagon was wrecked, the furniture was broken into splinters, and the stove was smashed into pieces smaller than a man's hand. The furniture was bought from Whitesides & EeEwan, who will do what they can to repair it, and the pieces of the stove were brought back to Mr. Jno. T. Buckley, who gave the unfortunate couple a good second-hand stove. Three looking glasses were in the wagon, not one of which was injured. The corner post that supports the shed over the coal scales was moved six or eight inches by the violent jar received from the wagon, and the top of one of the chimneys of the office was knocked down.

WEEKLY ROUNDABOUT.

THE FETTER.

We are not slaves to wear the fetter
That's made by whisky's modern curse;
For those who yield can fare no better,
And he who strives can fare no worse.

If you are men of manly daring,
Both wise in word and bold in deed—
Self denying—danger sharing—
Come help a brother in his need.

Blind hoodwinking, coward shrinking,
Heaven and earth shall curse alike,
Rise! the brain is fired by drinking,
Awake! before the foe men strike.

There's no receding, no retreating,
Every man must do his part:
Whist the march of temperance beating
Sways the pulse of every heart.

By the helpless infant dying,
By the mother's moan for bread,
By the millions daily dying,
By the memory of the dead.

Will you let your children perish
At the lordling's still-house gate?
And the wife you once did cherish—
Shall she die ere 'tis too late?

Tell them of the poisoned chalice—
As freemen you must claim your due;
The distiller owns a marble palace—
The poor-house and pris'n are not for you.

And if still he'll proudly leave you,
Crouched behind his bar at night,
Use the power that freedom gives you,
You can with your ballot fight.

H. J. H.

Job printing of all kinds executed at this office

Advertise your business, enlarge your stock, and get rich.

Moonlight promenades in South Frankfort are very fashionable now.

The schools are making active preparations for the May examinations.

Good speakers will be in attendance at the temperance meeting to-night.

A bill incorporating Frankfort Council, No. 7, Royal Templars of Temperance, has passed both houses of Legislature.

Fair Warning.

We, whose names are signed hereto mutually agree and promise that our shop shall be closed on Sundays, from and after this date, and that we will neither transact any business at the same, nor allow it to be transacted, on Sundays, under any circumstances whatever.

R. H. HIGDON,
ALEX. SZYMANSKI,
HENRY SAMUEL,
PETER SMITH,
WM. MANDEVILLE,
WM. SMITH.

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 23d, 1880.

It is about settled that the Legislature will adopt the warden system in the management of the penitentiary. It gives us pleasure to note the fact that among those who are mentioned in connection with the position of warden is the name of Capt. H. L. Todd. To those who enjoy the pleasure of an acquaintance with this gentleman, it is unnecessary to speak any words of commendation. He has had such experience as keeper of the prison, and gave evidence of his fitness for the place by the successful and highly satisfactory manner in which he managed its affairs. We risk nothing in saying that he was the best and most liberal buyer the hemp raisers ever knew, and if the place were to be filled now by a vote of the farmers of Woodford, Scott, Fayette, and Jessamine counties, he would be their unanimous choice. A better man could not possibly be selected.—Blue-Grass Clipper.

The following temperance items are from the Good Templars' Advocate, and are worthy of perusal:

A law has been passed by the California Legislature, Sacramento, prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors in the State Capital.

The Catholic Bishops in three dioceses in Ireland have effectually carried out the Sunday closing act. They refused to hear the confession of anyone who violated the law, and this cured the evil.

One of the grandest and most noticeable proofs of the growth of temperance sentiment is seen in the fact that the leading line of steamboats on the upper Mississippi river, the Keokuk and Northern Line Packet Company, has, for the past two years, banished liquor from their boats and refused to employ drinking men.

Drunkness by the quart or gallon or keg or even barrel is not an unusual thing. But temperance by the yard is. A petition one hundred and eighty-eight yards long has been presented to Congress by Mr. Brewster, of Michigan. It was signed by 34,000 women who want Congress to prohibit the making and selling of ardent spirits in the United States. All of which goes to show unmistakably that the people of Michigan are waking up on the great question and have gone about the work in the proper spirit. Let such petitions continue to pour in from all parts of the country until the supplications and appeals are listened to, and the traffic in human blood wiped out.

Jacksonville.

The roads have dried, but are very rough yet.

Tobacco plants are beginning to make their appearance.

Some of our young farmers have concluded to plow no more. Let's go fishing, boys.

Mr. Eli Rodgers has added much to the appearance of his residence by building a new fence around it.

There was quite an entertainment given at Mr. A. H. Hulet's on the night of the 16th inst. Sing, Jim.

Esquire D. O. Robinson and wife returned on the 17th inst., from a visit to his father, J. D. Robinson, in Frankfort.

Mr. Abel Armstrong, who has been quite ill with pneumonia and catarrh of the head for some time, is convalescent.

This is the month the chairmen of the boards of trustees have to make their census reports in the rural districts.

A large crowd assembled at Indian Fork Church on last Lord's day to hear their worthy pastor, Rev. Clark Kiley.

Moore's saw-mill, on Indian Fork creek, is doing excellent work for the people in that neighborhood. Mr. Moore has proven to be a gentleman in all cases. We hope the people will patronize him. LEWIS.

A writer in the Courier-Journal has this to say about the temperance question in Paducah. The day is not far distant when the same sentiment will prevail throughout the United States:

It has now assumed a political aspect and is argued on a political basis with such force and logical conclusions that no man dares to question its legitimacy. A long time the perplexing question in reference to the temperance reform was as to the practicability of a political temperance reformation. Experiment has obliterated the question from the catalogue of perplexities. It has become a part of the political platform of many of our best citizens, and some of the most prominent lawyers at the Paducah bar will not transact business, civil or criminal, for men who make, buy, sell or drink intoxicating liquors. Temperance reformers of this city are destined to become a power in the land, and while she respects her great State, ere long she will be held in far more infinite respect by the State, her natural mother, than all the grog-shops in the Union. We have temperance candidates out now, and we are going to elect them, irrespective of party or nationality. We are going to elect men to office who will uphold the right and help us to labor for the justice of God, the prosperity of the Government, the purity of our nationality, the sanctity of our religion, the virtue of people and the quietude of homes. Paducah has an appropriation bill to erect a custom-house in her limits, and she wants it to inhale sober air.

Belle Point.

Fishing has been good at the lock this week.

Mr. Henry Polsgrove and family have moved to town.

Trade Palace has been thronged with customers this week.

Miss Parmelia Collins is visiting friends in Lawrenceburg this week.

Judge W. L. Pence attended the big horse sale at Eminence Wednesday.

The proprietors of Lake Park have put up notices that fishing is prohibited in the lake, and everybody is requested to heed them.

The Pierian Club met with Miss Agnes Nicol Tuesday night. There was a larger crowd present than we've had for some time. We were glad to note the increase, and especially in the number of young men. At the last meeting there were only five present, at this there were eight—including our worthy President and "our Judge," who say they are nothing but boys yet. The programme, though not very extensive was well rendered; each performer seemed to excel themselves. The following is the programme: Duette, Misses Agnes and Nona Nicol; Select Reading, Miss Nannie Hardy; Song, Miss Maggie Hardy; Instrumental, Miss Nellie Jilison; Song, Miss Annie Crutcher; Select Reading, Mrs. Harper; Instrumental, Miss Lizzie Tharp; Speech, Master A. H. Crutcher; Duette, Mrs. Belle Hogan and Miss Lizzie Tharp; Dialogue, Misses Hardy and Lewis; Sentimental Song, Mrs. Belle Hogan. Time and place of the next meeting will be announced in next Saturday's ROUNDABOUT.

Bridgeport.

Mrs. Ben. Farmer is quite ill.

The eastern wind razed the fences last Monday.

Large numbers of fish are being caught in Benson creek.

Mrs. John W. Jenkins has chickens large enough to eat.

Bridgeport has an inventor—Tol. P. She needs a railroad now.

The mercury in the thermometer stood at 86° in the shade last Sunday.

Mr. Landon Bradley, of Shelby county, is visiting relatives in the neighborhood.

Madam Rumor says we are to have a wedding soon, and to us it is quite a-Parrent.

Hog and chicken cholera in the South Benson neighborhood. A number of each have died.

The panther has not been killed. It was last seen at Cate Hawkins' near the bridge on the pike.

Mr. Alex. Green had a large quantity of bacon stolen from him last week. The thieves burrowed under the smoke-house.

Dr. James Ricer, after purchasing two thorough-bred calves, at Pleasant Hill, for $100, has returned to his home in Boone county, Indiana.

The house of Mr. Wm. Perkins was entirely consumed by fire last Saturday night. A defective flue was the cause of it. All of his goods and chattels were saved.

French Lodge, I. O. G. T., met on Friday night of last week and had a glorious time. Nine additions were made to the Lodge. We now number thirty-one members, and meet every Friday night. BUC.
